WELCOME TO THE POST

David Powell, US Army, Vietnam, New

HONORS

We have completed the judging of our Safety, Law and Order and Voice of Democracy. We proud to submit to the district the following Post winners; Sergeant Michael Braley of the Everett Police Department for Police Officer Hattie Schweitzer of Snohomish County for the 911 Operator Chloe Crawford as our Voice of Democracy winner
Congratulations to these Post winners and we wish them the best as they go through the District Judging.

A Great Success

The Holiday Bazaar was a great success thanks due to Sundie Kombol, Christine Kelly and Debbie Greenland who coordinated and oversaw the whole event. They raised $712 to clean and appraise the large painting on the dance floor. There was a lot of positive feedback from the venders who are willing to do another in the spring.

The Post will be Closed on Christmas Day. The Officers and Staff of Old Guard Post 2100 wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

A Time To Remember

At this time of the year we all spend time with family and friends. We laugh, talk and remember past years. Let us all take a few moments to think of our Armed Forces members that are unable to be with their families. We wish all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We wish them to be safe and return to their loved ones. May the Holidays bring you all Joy and Peace.

MEMBERSHIP

As you all know membership is the backbone of our organization. We all must be recruiters for the V.F.W. and our post. If you know of someone who you believe may be eligible talk to them. If you require assistance to sign them up contact us at 425-252-2100 or at vfwpost2100@yahoo.com and we will assist you.

SEAHAWK BUS will be leaving the Post 2 hours prior the each home game. Contact Dale Smith at 425-239-2368.
